INGOROKVA

Ingorokva Fall 2022 collection is all about strong and defined silhouettes. The main theme revolves around playful colors creating remarkable contrast with neutrals. Here we can see beige used in contrast to neons, warm and cold tones bringing dimensions and layers to the pieces. The usage of colors tells its own complex story.

The collection is strongly inspired by expressionism and post-impressionism, the color palettes used by artists, such as Wassily Kandinsky and Mark Rothko.

Ingorokva Fall 2022 is built around gender neutrality and proves that there are no rules, only freedom. This freedom can be seen in each and every detail of the garments. Masterfully shaped pieces are paired with leather accessories. Strong shoulders are followed by weightless dresses and feathers. It can be said, that the whole collection is an abstract piece itself, offering something new each time we look at it.
